

There are 3 main costs that may be applicable when someone moves into a Residential Aged Care Facility. These costs are determined by the Australian Government & based on your Income & Assets Assessment.

1. Basic Daily Fee

The maximum basic daily fee for all aged care residents is 85% of the single basic Aged Pension daily payments, which is currently $61.96 per day.

2. Accommodation Costs

Depending on your income and assets you may be asked to pay an accommodation payment. If a Refundable Accommodation Deposit (RAD) is payable, a resident has 3 payment options to choose from Option 1 Pay the Refundable Accommodation Deposit (RAD) in full. This is a refundable payment.

Option 2 Pay the Daily Accommodation Payment (DAP). This is non-refundable.

Option 3 Pay a combination of the RAD + DAP. You pay a portion of the RAD, and pay the balance as DAP.

Refundable Accommodation Deposit	Daily Accommodation Payment	Combination RAD & DAP (for example)
$650,000	$148.87	$300,000 (RAD) + $80.16 (DAP)
$550,000	$125.97	$300,000 (RAD) + $57.26 (DAP)
$500,000	$114.52	$300,000 (RAD) + $45.80 (DAP)
$450,000	$103.06	$300,000 (RAD) + $34.35 (DAP)
$400,000	$91.61	$300,000 (RAD) + $22.90 DAP

PAYMENT OPTIONS (from 1st July 2024)

3. Means Tested Care Fees

Based on your Income and Asset assessment, the Government may require you to contribute to your cost of care. The means-tested care fee will be different for each resident, and not everyone has to pay it. This is reviewed every three months. People who do not provide these details will be required to pay maximum fees for aged care services.

Based on your Income and Assets Assessment by Services Australia, you will fall into one of three categories.

Supported residents If your assets are less than $59,500.00 and your income is under the threshold, you'll be fully supported by the Australian Government and won't need to pay the accommodation payment. All you will pay is 85% of the single pension.

Partially supported residents Residents with assets between $59,500.00 - $201,231.20 are deemed to be partially supported by the Australian Government. As a partially supported resident you're required to contribute to some of the costs of your accommodation.

Unsupported residents Residents with assets over $201,231.20 will be asked to pay the full Room Price which can be done in one of three ways.
